

Join Anacostia Riverkeeper & Pope Branch Park Restoration Alliance

January 19th, 2015 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service

Date: Monday, January 19th, 2015

Time: 9:00AM-12:00PM
(Registration at 8:30)

Place: Pope Branch Park

This collaborative event celebrates the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr and the memory of Joseph Glover, Founder and Chair of Pope Branch Park Restoration Alliance.

Rain or Shine. All supplies provided.

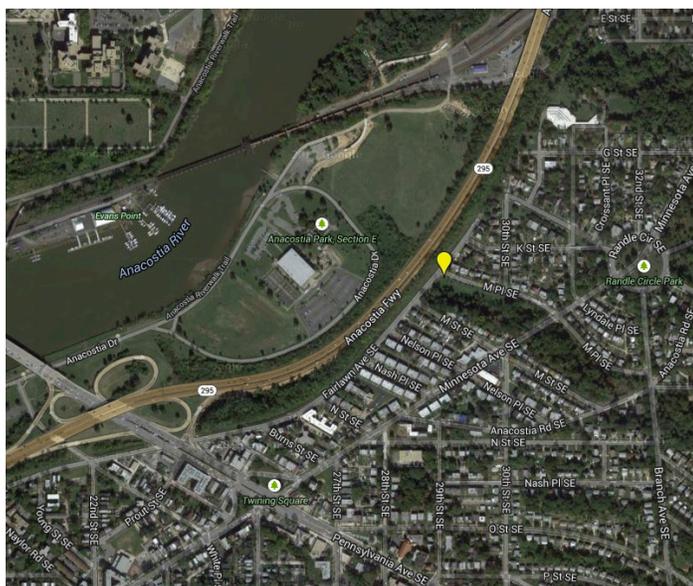

Wear closed-toe shoes and clothing you can get dirty that will protect you from sharp brush.

For questions, email info@anacostiariverkeeper.org

Coffee provided courtesy of

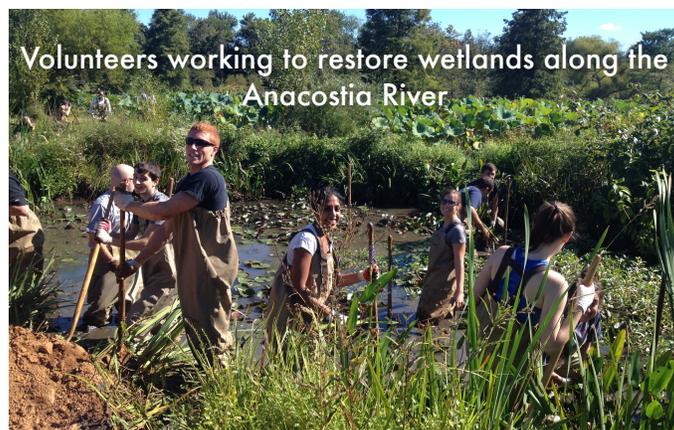

Map: <https://www.google.com/maps/d/viewer?mid=zX4LKF9wmxuk.kJoOJHqhVI9Y>

Pope Branch Park Restoration Alliance

Community Partners

Sierra Club / Anacostia Watershed Society / Earth Conservation Corps / Groundwork Anacostia River DC District Dept. of Environment / Serve DC / Interfaith Youth for Climate Justice / District Dept. of Public Works District Office of the Green City / District Dept. of Parks and Recreation / ANC 7B / Near Southeast Community Partnership / Serve Your City

Volunteers working to restore wetlands along the Anacostia River

Transportation: Street parking available.

U2 bus between Anacostia and Minn. Ave metros
V8 bus: Minn. Ave, Potomac Ave, Navy Yard metros
Bus stop @ Minn. Ave & 31st St SE / 30th St SE

Meet at corner of park: Fairlawn Ave SE & M PI

“Clean Waterways” is a series of volunteer cleanup events in the Anacostia River watershed.

The Clean Waterways Cleanup Series is sponsored by

