Office on Violence Against Women (OVW)

4 Awards: $1,246,428

Funded Agency: Ayuda

Awarding Agency: Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women

Solicitation Name: FY 2019 Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program

Award: $600,000

Purpose: The LAV Grant Program was created to provide victims access to appropriately trained legal representation designed to meet the broad spectrum of legal issues survivors encounter. Although protection orders play an important role in victim safety, representation in emergency and non-emergency protection order hearings does not address the breadth of legal needs of survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The LAV Grant Program supports the provision of holistic legal services.

Funded Agency: Jewish Women International

Awarding Agency: Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women

Solicitation Name: FY 2019 Consolidated Grant Program to Address Children and Youth Experiencing Domestic and Sexual Assault and Engage Men and Boys

Award: $348,238

Purpose: Funds support projects that will implement either a Comprehensive Project or an Engaging Men Project focused on comprehensive child- and youth-centered prevention, intervention, and response strategies that maximize community-based efforts and practices to more fully address children, youth, and young adults who are victims of or exposed to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sex trafficking. The program also supports multi-faceted prevention strategies that involve community organizing, outreach, and public education through the mobilization of men working as allies in the prevention of violence against women and girls.

Funded Agency: Asian Pacific Islander Domestic Violence Resource Project

Awarding Agency: Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women

Solicitation Name: FY 2019 Grants to Enhance Culturally Specific Services for Victims of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking Program

Award: $298,190

Purpose: The Grants to Enhance Culturally Specific Services for Victims of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking Program (Culturally Specific Services Program) was created by the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA 2005) (codified at 42 U.S.C. § 14045a). This program creates an opportunity for culturally specific community-based organizations to address the critical needs of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking victims in a manner that affirms a victim's culture and effectively addresses language and communication barriers.

Award: $1,000,000

Purpose: The FY 2019 National SAKI Program will provide funds to recipients to implement or enhance the comprehensive BJA model to address the issues that underline the problem of unsubmitted SAKs or to expand their existing SAKI project to include the collection of lawfully owed DNA samples from convicted offenders. In FY 2019, National SAKI Program funding is available under four Purpose Areas. Recipients under Purpose Area 4: Investigation and Prosecution of Cold Case Sexual Assaults are awarded funds to support the investigation and prosecution of high volumes of sexual assault cases that have resulted from testing backlogs of previously unsubmitted SAKs.

Office for Victims of Crime (OVC)

2 Awards: $1,790,723

Funded Agency: Amara Legal Center

Awarding Agency: Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime

Solicitation Name: OVC FY 2019 Direct Services to Support Victims of Human Trafficking: OVC FY 2019 Direct Services to Support Victims of Human Trafficking: PA2 Specialized Services for Victims of Human Trafficking

Award Number: 2019-VT-BX-0059

Project: Amara Legal Center

Award: $649,974

Purpose: This award made to Amara Legal Center (Amara) is funded under Purpose Area 2 which is designed to provide free civil legal services to victims of sex trafficking in the DC Metro Area, with a focus on Maryland and Northern Virginia; increase potential clients' access to services; and provide training sessions to local service providers and law enforcement officers. The project will fill gaps in services by increasing potential clients' access to intake services, raising awareness among area service providers about services, and training those service providers on properly identifying victims of sex trafficking. As a result, clients will receive tailored, wraparound assistance: trauma-informed, culturally competent civil legal services from Amara and referrals to social service providers with knowledge and experience in trauma-informed service provision. With project funding Amara will: 1) establish 3 new intake locations, 2) provide civil legal services to 106 clients, 3) make 50 social services referrals, 4) provide victim advocacy to 25 clients, and 5) provide trauma-informed, culturally competent training to 12 area social service organizations. Grant funds will be used to partially support seven staff members, training expenses, office supplies, equipment, and an external action research consultant.

National Institute of Justice (NIJ)

1 Awards: $272,275

Funded Agency: Office of Victim Services Justice Grants/ Department of Forensic Sciences

Awarding Agency: Department of Justice, National Institute of Justice

Solicitation Name: NIJ FY19 Paul Coverdell Forensic Science Improvement Grants Program- FORMULA

Award Number: 2019-CD-BX-0053

Project: Forensic Training

Award: $272,275

Purpose: The funds from this program will be used to send OCME's scientific staff members to national forensic conferences in order to learn current information and cutting-edge updates in this field. The question of how opioids are being obtained has moved more prominently to the forefront within Digital Forensics. Findings often include the use of multiple mobile devices to coordinate illegal transactions and query for the availability of opioids within a circle of contacts. Obtaining access to data on mobile devices can aid criminal investigations. DFS seeks to reduce the backlog and turn-around time by upgrading forensic technology and expanding digital evidence storage. Outcomes for both agencies will include improving the quality and timeliness of services and enhancing the capacity of the agencies and their teams.
